Medi-Nuclear
Privacy Statement
June 2010

Medi-Nuclear respects the privacy of all visitors to our website.

Our Web server does not automatically retrieve any information from your browser regarding your e-mail address, and we do not collect personal information on visitors who browse our website without their expressed knowledge and permission.

We have been a respected leader in nuclear medicine since 1975, providing technical expertise and competitive prices on a complete line of nuclear medicine and nuclear cardiology products. We work diligently to be a dependable resource for our customers, and a valuable resource for our suppliers.

It is important to us that we meet or exceed the generally accepted and federally suggested guidelines on privacy. For that reason, our site has security measures in place to protect the loss, misuse, and alteration of the information under our control.

If you provide us with your email address while visiting one of our web pages, talking with us on the phone, or placing an order, we understand that to mean that you are interested in our product or service offerings. Therefore, from time to time you may receive mail, telephone, and/or email communications from us with useful industry tips, service updates, and special offers and promotions.

You can rest assured that your privacy is paramount to us. We do not make our customer or visitor lists available to anyone outside our own company. We do not rent or sell our names to anyone.

If you do not wish to receive email communications from us, you can remove yourself from our list by following the “unsubscribe here” link in an email that you have received, or send us an email with the word “remove” in the subject line, and we will remove you from our mailing list.

Thank you again for the opportunity to serve you.

Sincerely yours,

Brian Rand
